2011 DUI arrest

On June 3, 2011, Maldonado was arrested by the Sedgwick County Sheriff's Office for DUI and driving with a suspended license. The deputy alleged numerous signs of impairment, failed field-sobriety testing and a preliminary breath result above .08. The final Intoxilyzer result is redacted in the supplied report. The court screenshot does not show the disposition of Sheriff's case 11S005849, so these records establish an arrest but not a conviction.

(Source: Sedgwick Sheriff's Office, Case Report #: 11S005849)

2012 DUI conviction

In case 12DU00842, Maldonado was found guilty of:

- DUI — incapable of safely operating a vehicle
- DUI — refusal to submit to testing

- Refusal to submit to testing

A preliminary-breath-test refusal charge was dismissed. These are multiple counts arising from one case—not three separate DUI incidents. The case is in collections and shows an outstanding balance of $2,084. (Source: Wichita Municipal Court, Case #: 12DU00842)

2016 DUI conviction

In case 16DU00649, Maldonado was charged with second-offense DUI, refusal of a preliminary breath test, violating a driver's-license restriction and DUI based on "any competent evidence." The second-offense DUI, preliminary-test-refusal and license-restriction charges were dismissed. She was found guilty of DUI based on "any competent evidence." The case is closed with no outstanding balance.

Although the second-offense DUI charge was dismissed, Maldonado was convicted on a separate DUI count based on "any competent evidence.

2017 and 2018 bookings

The jail sheet shows DUI-related bookings in May and August 2017 and January 2018. However, the court screenshot contains warrant and probation-violation alerts associated with the 2016 case. The August 2017 and January 2018 entries are also classified as commitments or sentences. They therefore appear likely to reflect enforcement or incarceration connected to an existing case, not proven new DUI incidents.

Other cases include guilty findings for driving without a license in 2016, speeding in 2016, careless driving in 2011, running a red light in 2010, and speeding in 2009. Some related license and insurance charges were dismissed, one improper-turn charge was amended, and proof of insurance was eventually provided in the 2009 case.

Allegations from Ex

2016-DM-004968 — State of Kansas/DCF v. Patrick Moore:

Kansas DCF filed this case in July 2016 to establish Patrick Moore's support obligation for their son, William, born in 2013. In motions filed during 2019, Moore alleged recurring incidents involving Maldonado's alcohol use. He claimed that in February 2019, her parents asked him to retrieve the child because she was under the influence, and that in March the child was found in his pajamas trying to awaken Maldonado while she was allegedly passed out on a couch, causing him to arrive 15 minutes late for school. The parties subsequently agreed to joint legal custody, with Moore becoming the residential custodian, Maldonado receiving scheduled parenting time, and Moore's child-support obligation ending May 1, 2019. In November, Moore alleged that the school notified him the child was absent following an overnight visit with Maldonado; when he went to her residence, the child answered the door in pajamas, one unidentified man was allegedly passed out on the living-room floor, and another appeared wearing boxer shorts. Moore claimed Maldonado forcibly took the child from his arms, pushed him into bushes, punched him in the back of the head, and that one of the men threatened to beat him if he entered the house. Moore said he called police but declined to press charges. Based on these allegations and earlier incidents, Moore asked the court to suspend Maldonado's overnight visits, require supervised parenting time, substance-abuse treatment, alcohol monitoring, and drug testing. The hearings went through February 2020 but do not clearly disclose the court's final resolution of that motion.

VERIFIED MOTION TO MODIFY CUSTODY, PARENTING TIME, AND FOR TEMPORARY ORDERS

COMES NOW, the Respondent, Patrick S. Moore, by and through his attorney, Alex P. Flores of Klenda Austerman LLC, and moves the Court for an Order modifying the residential custody of the parties' child. In support of said motion, Respondent would show the court as follows:

1. The parties have one minor child, namely, William Moore, year of birth, 2013.
2. On November 22, 2016, the parties entered an order by agreement naming Petitioner as residential custodian, with Respondent having nearly equal parenting time as follows:
 - a. Week One – Father shall pick up the minor child every Wednesday evening at 5:30 p.m. and will drop him off at school Thursday morning. Father shall pick up the minor child every other weekend from Saturday morning at 10:00 a.m. through Monday morning and drop him off at Mother's home at 10:00 a.m.

- b. Week Two – Father shall pick up the minor child at Mother's home on Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. and shall drop him off at Mother's home on Saturday at 10:00 a.m.

3. The parties exercised this schedule for approximately three (3) months before moving to a shared residential custody schedule.

4. For the reasons set forth herein, the Court should award Respondent primary residential custody of the parties' minor child.

5. All custody, residency, and parenting time orders in this matter have been entered by agreement, and therefore, Respondent is not required to demonstrate a material change in circumstances prior to requesting a change in custody, residency, or parenting time. See Anhalt v. Fesler, 6 Kan.App.2d 921, 636 P.2d 224 (1981).

6. On the afternoon of February 12, 2019, Petitioner's parents contacted Respondent during Petitioner's regularly scheduled parenting time and requested that Respondent pick up the child from Petitioner's residence. When Respondent arrived to pick up the minor child, Petitioner was clearly under the influence.

7. Respondent states that this is not the first time such an incident has occurred. Furthermore, Respondent states that he has suspected that Petitioner may have been under the influence of alcohol on previous occasions when he dropped off or picked up the minor child following Petitioner's parenting time.

10:00 a.m. through Monday morning and drop him off at Mother's home at 10:00 a.m.

- b. Week Two – Father shall pick up the minor child at Mother's home on Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. and shall drop him off at Mother's home on Saturday at 10:00 a.m.

3. The parties exercised this schedule for approximately three (3) months before moving to a shared residential custody schedule.

4. For the reasons set forth herein, the Court should award Respondent primary residential custody of the parties' minor child.

5. All custody, residency, and parenting time orders in this matter have been entered by agreement, and therefore, Respondent is not required to demonstrate a material change in circumstances prior to requesting a change in custody, residency, or parenting time. See Anhalt v. Fesler, 6 Kan.App.2d 921, 636 P.2d 224 (1981).

6. On the afternoon of February 12, 2019, Petitioner's parents contacted Respondent during Petitioner's regularly scheduled parenting time and requested that Respondent pick up the child from Petitioner's residence. When Respondent arrived to pick up the minor child, Petitioner was clearly under the influence.

7. Respondent states that this is not the first time such an incident has occurred. Furthermore, Respondent states that he has suspected that Petitioner may have been under the influence of alcohol on previous occasions when he dropped off or picked up the minor child following Petitioner's parenting time.

Every Saturday or Sunday from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. for weekend parenting time depending on Petitioner's schedule.

- b. Petitioner's parents shall supervise Petitioner's parenting time either at Petitioner's residence or her parent's residence.

14. Respondent submits the paragraph above as his proposed parenting plan on this matter pending final resolution of this issue, and he asserts that the same is in the minor child's best interests.

15. Pending a final custody order by this Court or during the pendency of this custody dispute, Respondent further requests that Petitioner seek treatment, therapy, or counseling for her alcoholism and substance abuse issues.

16. Furthermore, Respondent requests that Petitioner submit to a 5-panel hair follicle test and alcohol monitoring. Respondent will agree to pay for the first month of alcohol monitoring.

WHEREFORE, Respondent respectfully requests that the Court temporarily award Respondent primary residential custody of the minor child as set forth above, that Respondent be named the primary residential custodian of the minor child upon adjudication of this matter, that Petitioner submit to alcohol monitoring to establish her sobriety prior to final adjudication of this matter, that Petitioner submit to counseling to address any substance abuse issues she may be struggling with, that the parties submit to limited case management to address this dispute and for such further relief as the Court may deem just and equitable.

Pursuant to Chapter 23 of K.S.A.

VERIFIED MOTION TO MODIFY PARENTING TIME AND FOR TEMPORARY ORDERS

COMES NOW, the Respondent, Patrick S. Moore, by and through his attorney, Alex P. Flores of Klenda Austerman LLC, and moves the Court for an Order modifying Petitioner Jessica Maldonado's parenting time. This motion is supported as follows:

1. The parties have one minor child, namely, William Moore, year of birth, 2013.
2. On April 29, 2019, the parties entered an Agreed Order Modifying Custody and Parenting Time and Terminating Child Support ("Agreed Order"), naming Respondent Patrick Moore ("Patrick") the primary residential custodian, with Petitioner Jessica Maldonado ("Jessica") having parenting time as follows:

- a. In the Summer months, every Thursday morning at 7:30 a.m. overnight to Friday at 8:00 p.m.

- b. In the Summer months, every other Friday at 8:00 p.m. to Saturday at 1:00 p.m.
- c. During the school year, maternal grandmother shall pick up the minor child from school every Tuesday and Wednesday and shall exercise parenting time until Jessica is off work.
- d. During the school year, every Thursday from after school overnight and Jessica shall drop off the minor child at school on Friday morning and then pick him up after school until 8:00 p.m.
- e. During the school year, every other Friday at 8:00 p.m. to Saturday at 1:00 p.m.

The Agreed Order also provides that “[n]either party shall consume any alcoholic beverages in excess while in the presence of or while responsible for the care and oversight of the minor child.” (pg. 5, ¶ 5). A copy of the Agreed Order dated April 29, 2019 is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3. For the reasons set forth herein, the Court should suspend Jessica’s overnight parenting time with the child, and order all her parenting time be supervised until she satisfies the rehabilitative requests made herein.

4. All custody, residency, and parenting time orders in this matter have been entered by agreement, and therefore, Patrick is not required to demonstrate a material change in circumstances prior to requesting a change in custody, residency, or parenting time. See Anhalt v. Fesler, 6 Kan.App.2d 921, 636 P.2d 224 (1981).

5. On the morning of Friday, November 8, 2019, Patrick received a call from the school stating that William, the minor child, was not present at school and that no one had notified the school of his absence. Pursuant to the above referenced custody agreement, Jessica was supposed to drop off the minor child at school on Friday morning following her overnight parenting time on Thursday. Patrick called Jessica numerous times to address the issue and understand why William was not at school. Unable to reach Jessica, Patrick drove to Jessica's residence and rang the doorbell. To Patrick's surprise, William answered the door in his pajamas.

6. When William opened the door, Patrick witnessed one unidentified male passed out, asleep, on the floor of the living room presumably under the influence of drugs or alcohol. He was unresponsive to the doorbell and did not wake up when Patrick called Jessica's name. Accordingly, Patrick picked up William, who appeared afraid and confused, and started walking away with the child to get him properly clothed and to take him to school. Before he could leave the front porch, Jessica came out on the porch with a second unidentified male that was in his boxer shorts. Jessica then forcibly removed William from Patrick's arms. Knowing a struggle with Jessica could potentially injure William, Patrick allowed Jessica to take William from his arms. She then placed the child back inside the house and when she returned outside, she pushed Patrick off the porch into the bushes. As Patrick was walking away from the bushes and porch, Jessica punched Patrick in the back of the head.

7. While standing in the driveway and contemplating what he should do next, one of the unidentified males opened the front door of Jessica's residence and threatened to "beat his a" if he tried to come inside. Patrick then walked to his car and called the police to avoid a confrontation. While waiting for the police, Jessica and one of the unidentified males entered her vehicle with William and drove away. Patrick waited a few minutes and called the school to confirm that Jessica dropped William off at school. The officer arrived, spoke with Patrick, but did not issue a citation because Patrick did not press criminal charges on Jessica.

8. This is not the first time an incident like this has happened. In fact, similar incidents have occurred on two other occasions, resulting in Verified Motions to Modify Custody that were filed on February 14, 2019 and April 2, 2019. The April 2, 2019 motion resulted in the Agreed Order attached hereto. The specifics of those incidents are set forth below:

Verified Motion filed February 14, 2019

- a. On the afternoon of February 12, 2019, Jessica's parents contacted Patrick during Jessica's regularly scheduled parenting time and requested that Patrick pick up the child from Jessica's residence. When Patrick arrived to pick up the minor child, Jessica was clearly under the influence.
- b. Patrick states that this is not the first time such an incident has occurred. Furthermore, Patrick states that he has suspected that Jessica may have been under the influence of alcohol on previous occasions when he dropped off or picked up the minor child following Jessica's parenting time.
- c. Jessica has a history of alcohol abuse and criminal charges and convictions flowing therefrom.
- d. Patrick knows that Jessica's driving privileges are suspended, that Jessica is ordered to drive with an interlock device, and that her driving privileges are subject to potential revocation. Jessica has a history of traffic infractions and convictions related to alcohol, including accidents.

Verified Motion filed April 2, 2019

- e. On Thursday, March 28, 2019, Jessica's mother arrived to pick up the minor child for school at Jessica's residence. Jessica's mother notified Patrick that Jessica was not answering the door to her residence. Jessica's mother eventually entered the residence to find the minor child, in his pajamas, attempting to wake up Jessica while passed out on the couch and under the influence of alcohol (and potentially other substances). A domestic dispute arose between Jessica and her mother and the minor child witnessed the confrontation.

- f. Jessica's mother alerted Patrick of the incident and requested that he take the minor child to school. Upon arrival, Patrick witnessed part of the confrontation between Jessica and her mother. At this point, the child was already 15 minutes late for school due to Jessica's intoxication. Jessica refused to allow Patrick to take the child to school. Patrick filed a police report. Jessica eventually relented and allowed Patrick to take the child to school.
- g. Later that same day, Jessica refused to allow Patrick to pick up the minor child from school. Jessica threatened Patrick with confrontation if he showed up at the school to pick up the minor child. Wishing to avoid the embarrassment of a confrontation at school, as well as the risk of the minor child witnessing another confrontation, Patrick allowed Jessica (or possibly her parents) to pick up the minor child from school on March 28, 2019.
- h. The next day, Friday, March 29, 2019, Patrick received a call from Jessica at 9 a.m. Patrick is certain that Jessica was, once again, under the influence of alcohol. Later that day, at 3:00 p.m., Jessica called Patrick a second time, again, under the influence of alcohol. Fortunately, the child was at school and would remain in Patrick's custody and care after school and over the weekend.

9. Patrick has given Jessica various opportunities to address and obtain treatment for her alcoholism prior to seeking intervention of this Court. Unfortunately, based on the recent incident that it is evident that she refuses to seek the treatment necessary to address her alcoholism and substance abuse issues.

10. In sum, Patrick fears for the safety of the minor child in all respects and he believes that it is not in the child's interest to continue to spend overnight or unsupervised time with Jessica until she addresses and overcomes her substance abuse issues.

11. Based on the allegations presented herein, Patrick believes it is in the minor child's best interests that Jessica's overnight parenting time with the child is hereby suspended until she can establish a pattern of sobriety. Patrick proposes that the parties' current parenting time schedule be suspended, and that Jessica have supervised parenting time as follows:

- a. During the school year, Jessica shall have supervised parenting time with the child every Thursday after school until 8:00 p.m.;
- b. During the school year, Jessica shall have supervised parenting time every other Saturday from 9:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m.;
- c. In the Summer months, Jessica shall have supervised parenting time with the child every Thursday morning at 7:30 am. until Thursday evening at 8:00 p.m.;
- d. In the Summer months, Jessica shall have every other Saturday from 9 a.m. until 1:00 p.m.;

- e. Petitioner's parents shall supervise Petitioner's parenting time at either Petitioner's residence or her parent's residence.¹

12. Patrick submits the paragraph above as his proposed parenting plan on this matter pending final resolution of this issue, and he asserts that the same is in the minor child's best interests.

13. Pending a final custody order by this Court or during the pendency of this custody dispute, and before Jessica can request additional parenting time with the minor child, Patrick requests that Jessica be ordered to undergo and successfully complete treatment, therapy, or counseling for her alcoholism and substance abuse issues. Patrick requests the therapist or treatment provider be agreed upon by the parties and approved by this Court in advance.

14. Furthermore, Patrick requests that Jessica submit to a 5-panel hair follicle test at her own expense.

15. Patrick further requests that Jessica submit to continued alcohol monitoring through AXIS Monitoring in Wichita, Kansas before she be allowed to exercise overnight or unsupervised parenting time with the child.

16. Patrick further requests that the parties submit to limited case management to address this motion and the concerns raised herein.

17. To the extent this Court adopts Patrick's requests or otherwise orders Jessica to comply with the same, Patrick requests this Court set a review hearing to address Jessica's compliance and progress with the same, and that the review hearing take place prior to the completion or recommendation of the limited case manager.

¹ Patrick believes that Jessica's parents will be agreeable to supervising Jessica's parenting time. However, if Jessica will not agree to this supervised custody arrangement, or if Jessica's parents are unavailable or not agreeable to supervise, then Patrick requests that Jessica be ordered to pay for the cost of a court appointed supervisor.

Financial Problems

2012-LM-015047 — Genesis Health Club v. Jessica Maldonado: Genesis Health Club sued Maldonado in September 2012 to recover an alleged $897 debt, plus 10% prejudgment interest dating from June 16, 2011, post-judgment interest, and costs. Maldonado did not appear, and the court entered judgment for Genesis on October 3, 2012. Genesis subsequently pursued collection through an order in aid and several bank and wage garnishments between 2013 and 2014; the balances cited in later garnishment papers included $1,008.88 and $914.75 plus interest. The individual garnishments were later released, and the record concludes with a satisfaction of judgment stating that Maldonado's judgment was fully satisfied.

2014-LM-012900 — Westar Energy v. Jessica Maldonado: Westar Energy sued Maldonado in 2014 for an alleged unpaid utility debt of $234.39, with 10% prejudgment interest running from October 7, 2011. After Maldonado failed to appear or answer, the court entered a default judgment on October 16, 2014 for the principal, interest, and costs. Westar then obtained a wage garnishment directed to Fred Meyer Stores for an outstanding balance of $405.96; that garnishment was later released. However, the creditor continued renewing the judgment: a November 2018 affidavit said $11.75 plus interest and costs remained due, and the October 2022 renewal affidavit listed $15.64 plus interest and costs. The supplied record contains no satisfaction of judgment.

2014-LM-014161 — Dental Associates of West Wichita v. Jessica Maldonado: Dental Associates sued Maldonado for an alleged $243.93 debt, seeking 10% prejudgment interest from June 29, 2013, post-judgment interest, and costs. Maldonado did not appear or respond, and the court entered a default judgment on January 8, 2015. In February 2015, the creditor sought a wage garnishment from Fred Meyer Stores based on a then-outstanding balance of $382.05; the file also contains a later request concerning the employer's calculation of withheld earnings and a release of the garnishment. The underlying judgment nevertheless remained active: a February 2019 renewal affidavit reported $483.66 plus interest and costs due, while a January 2023 renewal reported $599.86 plus interest and costs. No satisfaction of judgment appears in the supplied documents.

2016-LM-001640 — Galt Ventures/Speedy Cash v. Jessica Maldonado: Galt Ventures, doing business as Speedy Cash, sued Maldonado in February 2016 over a payday loan, seeking $300 in unpaid principal, a $75 unpaid finance charge and returned-check fee, contractual interest, and costs. The case was dismissed for lack of prosecution in July 2016 because service had not been completed, but the court reinstated it in May 2018 to permit another service attempt. After Maldonado was served and did not appear, the court entered a default judgment on June 28, 2018 for $782.04, consisting of the $300 principal, $75 in charges, $321.04 in accrued interest, and $86 in court costs, with continuing interest. A January 2019 wage garnishment listed an outstanding balance of $855.40 and was directed to Dyson, Inc. The garnishment was released in October 2019, and a satisfaction of judgment filed April 1, 2020 states that Maldonado's judgment was fully satisfied.

ORDER OF GARNISHMENT
(To Attach Earnings)

To the above-named Garnishee:

The amount of the unsatisfied balance under this judgment, as of 01/11/2019 is: 855.40. This balance is a beginning balance only and may NOT be used as a total as the balance may increase due to continually accruing interest. Complete the attached Answer under penalty of perjury as set forth in the instructions. The attached Instructions to Garnishee are incorporated by reference. You are ordered as a garnishee to follow the attached instructions as if they were set forth in this Order.

This order of garnishment has the effect of attaching the nonexempt portion of the judgment debtor's earnings for all pay periods which end while the order is in effect. The order takes effect the day it is served on you. This order of garnishment is a continuing order and remains in effect until the judgment against the judgment debtor has been paid or the garnishment is released, whichever occurs sooner. This order also constitutes an order of the court directing the garnishee to pay to the judgment creditor all earnings which are to be withheld under this order. You are ordered to withhold and pay the earnings in accordance with the attached instructions.

If you fail to comply with the terms of this order and the attached instructions, the judgment creditor may file a motion for judgment against you for the amount of judgment against the judgment debtor or such other amount as the court shall order, including the expenses and attorney fees of the judgment creditor. If you fail to make payment of funds as required under this order and the attached instructions, the judgment creditor may file a motion for judgment against you for contempt or such amount as the court shall order, including the expenses and attorney fees of the judgment creditor.

Jessica Maldonado helped start the Wichita chapter of Citizens' Climate Lobby, which supports "Carbon Pricing" which is a carbon tax or fee on carbon emissions that would drive up energy costs.

Jessica Maldonado is a lifelong Wichitan, and community advocate, who has spent most of her life working to make Kansas government more responsive to the people who depend on it.

She spent her childhood on Wichita's south side, where she learned the value of what it means to work hard and rely on neighbors who look out for one another. As a working single mother and renter, she understands the accounting a struggling Wichita family runs every month: rent that climbs at each lease renewal, a child care waitlist that does not move fast enough, and stagnant wages. She believes it is the government's job to make that math easier, not harder.

Even as a child, her interests ran a little differently than most: her television of choice was C-SPAN over cartoons. That early curiosity about how decisions get made has grown into more than two decades of public service. Jessica previously served as Co-President of the League of Women Voters Wichita-Metro and League of Women Voters US Advocacy and Litigation Committee, leadership recognized in the Wichita Business Journal's 2023 "Women Who Lead: Diversity, Equity & Inclusion" feature. She also helped found the Wichita chapter of Citizens' Climate Lobby. Beyond those roles, her volunteer record spans focused on water quality, urban tree canopy, and neighborhood advisory work across the city, the kind of sustained, unglamorous effort that rarely makes headlines but keeps a community functioning. Before her advocacy work, Jessica spent 20+ years in the service industry, work that taught her firsthand what it means to build a life around hourly wages, a schedule that changes week to week, and rarely any benefits.

While these organizations gave Jessica opportunities to serve, the greatest impact came from the people beside her. She has been inspired by neighbors who quietly dedicate countless hours to improving their communities, volunteers who show up without recognition, and leaders who never stop believing that positive change is possible. The friendships, mentorships, and shared commitment she found through these connections continue to guide her today. They remind her that meaningful progress is never achieved by one person alone. It is built by people willing to listen, collaborate, and serve something larger than themselves. But through this, she has also learned that policy shapes what is possible. The choices we make as a state can either remove barriers and open doors or make it harder for people to thrive.

Jessica Maldonado is running for Kansas House District 96 to build and support a state where working families can afford to live, students and teachers have the resources they need to succeed, communities are supported, and every Kansan has a government that answers to the people it represents, not the people who fund it.

Jessica Maldonado served on the City of Wichita’s Diversity, Inclusion and Civil Rights Advisory Board. In 2024 & 2025, she supported moving forward a reparation for slavery-reparations ordinance. She questioned why the motion was tabled, promoted a “lunch and learn” to generate support for it and voted for the resolution to move it forward to the City Council.

iii. Reparations Ordinance

Lehman mentioned that the reparations ordinance is extremely important, and everyone needs to be prepared to have a robust conversation. This conversation will determine if the board wants to recommend anything to the City Council.

Rinker revisited some of her questions that she had about the ordinance such as funding. Irvin stated that if this were to progress that the City would assign a grant writer to identify funding sources.

Maldonado questioned when reparations was originally brought to the board and why it was tabled. Irvin shared that in early summer 2024 that Mary Dean shared the proposal but tabled the topic to enhance it.

Rinker wanted to know if legal needs to be involved with DICRAB considering the ordinance. Irvin shared that council wants a recommendation from DICRAB before legal would get involved.

iv. Community Action/Public Engagement Efforts

Maldonado informed the board of multiple events in the coming week that are related to the purpose of the board.

- ❖ Youth Justice Action Month Block Party
 - Thursday, October 17
- ❖ League of Women Voters
 - Tuesday, October 22

Lehman reminded everyone that the last day to register to vote for the presidential election is October 15 until midnight.

6. Board Agenda	i. Reparations Legality Update from Staff Nate Johnson, City of Wichita attorney went through the Reparations Ordinance and shared his comments. The main comments consisted of using more consistent and clear language. There was an emphasis of describing parts of the ordinance in more detail. He noted that there could be a reshaping because the ordinance mentions both a commission and starting payments. He recommends having a more concrete plan of what could happen. Following the presentation of Johnson's comments the board thanked him for the overview. Shorter mentioned to the board that he feels like it would be beneficial if the board submitted an unbiased statement about the board's progress on the reparation's ordinance. This is regarding Mary Dean submitting an ethics complaint that is about the reparation's ordinance. Lehman said that the ethics committee can look at minutes to see progress over the past few months. Bell shared that she believes that it would be useful to make a statement. Motion made by Shorter to submit letter to ethics committee to review approved minutes that discuss the review of the reparations ordinance and seconded by Bell. Motion passed 10-0. There was more discussion about who would write the letter and the actual content of the statement. Motion made by L Anderson to authorize the chair of the board to write a letter to the ethics committee and send a nonbiased letter which was seconded by Shorter. Motion passed 10-0.

i. Reparations Options

Lehman called for an open conversation for the board to discuss what the will of the body is to do with the ordinance.

Bell inquired about funding opportunities and Mary Dean gave clarification.

Rinker asked about the language/title of the ordinance based on the current political climate. Mary Dean responded.

S. Anderson asked about legality of the Apology section of the ordinance. Suggested references/citations to add weight to the argument.

Maldonado suggested a “lunch and learn” to educate City Council members before it is brought to a council meeting.

Allen shared feedback on the apology section and suggested a reframe.

L. Anderson asked about the climate and temperature with the relation to how reparations will affect the City of Wichita. He made it clear that he is in support of citizens putting forth policy suggestions to the City Council.

DICRAB is meant to make a recommendation to the City Council based on the board’s viewing if the reparations ordinance should be adopted or taken under consideration.

Will of the board to ask the City’s legal department to review the updated ordinance.

i. Reparations Vote

Lehman shared a recap of the reparations ordinance stating that Council Member Brandon Johnson requested that the board review the ordinance and recommend if City Council should consider.

Lehman then went on and stated the board has three options:

1. The Board can recommend that the City Council take up the ordinance
2. The Board can recommend that the City Council not take up the ordinance
3. The Board can recommend that the City Council take up the ordinance with recommendations and changes.

L. Anderson shared that he believes the City Council should take up the ordinance.

S. Anderson agreed with L. Anderson's beliefs but voiced concerns about the final proposed ordinance. She stated that she is concerned about the potential issue of the City Council having fewer members appointed to the proposed Reparations Commission. S. Anderson also voiced concerns about the funding, who will apply for the grants, and what will happen if the grants are not received.

Shorter echoed S. Anderson's concerns and mentioned that no dollar amount is listed in the funding section of the ordinance.

L. Anderson went on to state that Miss Dean had submitted her final proposed ordinance and had no more recommendations. Since Miss Dean has taken the required steps up to this point, the proposed ordinance will be left to the City Council to deliberate.

Shorter stated that he does not support the proposed ordinance as written.

Bell stated that the Law Department had reviewed the document. Shorter agreed, but the Law Department recommended changes to the proposed ordinance, but those changes are not reflected in this final proposed ordinance. Bell then mentioned that Miss Dean does not have to take the recommendations from the Law Department, as this is her final proposed ordinance.

Rinker stated that the ordinance is not in its final form and is an ordinance concept, and the Law Department will draft the ordinance for the City Council to deliberate. Rinker then stated that she will abstain from the vote due to her employment conflicts with the final proposed ordinance.

Lehman stated that she has struggled with this final proposed ordinance since it was brought to the board. She said she is concerned about today's political climate and is unsure if it will affect funding and the no longer available grants.

Lehman stated that one potential avenue the Board can take is to vote on the proposed final ordinance, and then each board member can provide their own reasoning on their vote to the City Council so that every Board member's voice is heard. Allen respectfully disagreed and said that it would make it personal.

Allen mentioned that he is concerned about the long-term impacts of the ordinance due to the current political climate.

Allen mentioned that he is concerned about the long-term impacts of the ordinance due to the current political climate.

L. Anderson calls to question and motions that Miss Dean's final proposed ordinance be given to the City Council for their review and overview without a recommendation of endorsing or opposing, seconded by Bell.

Demory voiced concerns about the potential difficulties of the ordinance going to the City Council and expressed frustration with how the Board handled it.

Passed 5-2-2.

ii. SIB Appointment

Lehman mentioned that the Board appointed Maldonado to SIB as a representative. Maldonado then went on to explain her role as a representative and what the Board does.

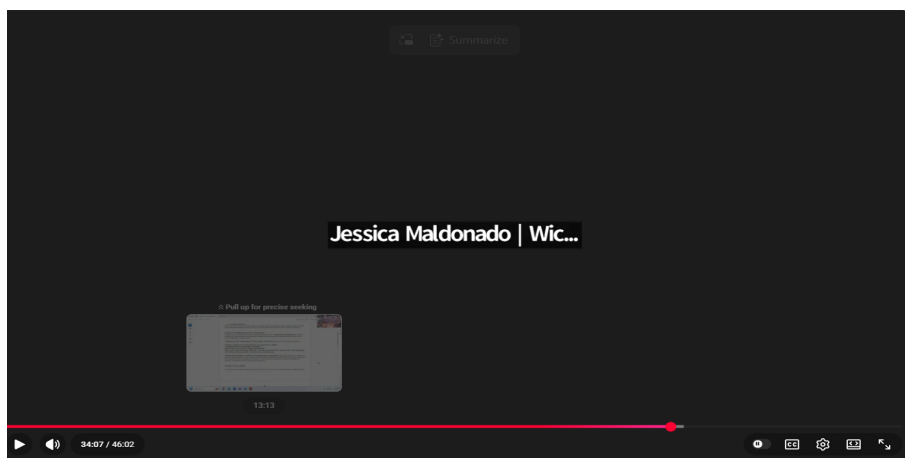

Maldonado expressed interest in continuing to serve on SIB.

Lehman called the vote for Maldonado to continue serving on SIB.

Passed 9-0.

3355: next step all right I've recorded you as a yes do we have any votes I

3402: think we had one no online is that correct Jessica have you I'm a yes you're a yes

3408: okay all right so at this point we had no we had two nos I think one

3418: um abstention um so the this board has voted to pass the ordinance to the council without 3429: taking a position on whether we endorse the ordinance or not but we do believe

3432: that this the council should consider the ordinance that is the will of the board

3441: all right three to two to one um it was four okay I believe is a yes because I always believe that 3451: it should go through the council because that is the proper form of government so

3455: it's five to two to one what was your pardon me I did not vote yeah so five to two to two

3508: all right so our next order of business is that uh we as a board have a uh seat on the sustainability
